“Yesterday whilst in reception, a lady approached me regarding the types of amenities we use. She brought a small bottle with her which was titled “Lanovera” containing Aloe Vera & Lanolin. She was raving about how great the product was and wants to know where it came from and how she can get it for her own personal use. Her name is Phillipa and she stayed with us in August and has carried the bottle with her to Bali and back!”

“I find the Lanovera Moisturizing Body Lotion to be brilliant. It is a really nice product to use, not at all greasy.”

Sarah, London, UK

“Your Lanovera soap, shampoo and conditioner we used when on holiday in hotels has assisted my husband’s dry and flaky skin, which he has suffered from for years.”
